

Welcome to the Palm Valley Animal Center! We are happy you have chosen to adopt from us. We sincerely hope we can be of service to you. Each adoption is an individual match of pet and owner. The answers provided on this application will help guide PVAC in determining whether a proposed adoption is an appropriate match. This application is designed to help us determine if the adoption is in the best interest of the pet and to assist the potential adopter to find a pet most compatible with his/her lifestyle. The final decision is based on many factors and not limited to the answers provided on this application. PVAC has no obligation to explain or defend its final decision. Remember - we have the pet's welfare as our foremost consideration.

Responsible pet ownership requires ongoing expenditures of time and money. You should reasonably expect the annual expense for food, housing, supplies and medical care to cost at least $300-400 a year. The amount of time and money required will likely increase as the pet ages.

In order to be considered for adoption today, I understand and accept that I must:

- Be 18 years or older
- Have a picture ID with current address
- Have the knowledge and consent of all adults living in the household.
- Be willing to spend the time and money necessary to provide the training, medical treatment, proper care, confinement and licensing of the pet.
- Understand that the Palm Valley Animal Center has the right to deny or approve your adoption application.
